VILLAGE LIFE & MODERN CITY EXPERIENCES

Fordham, a village that exudes a picturesque charm, is a mere six miles from Colchester city. Nestled amid the lush Essex countryside, Fordham offers respite from the hustle and bustle of urban life.

Residents enjoy a strong sense of community, with local shops, schools and amenities fostering a close-knit atmosphere. The surrounding countryside has nearly 500 acres of woodland and contributes to the area's natural appeal, providing ample opportunities for scenic walks and outdoor activities.

Colchester, Britain's First City, is on Paddock View's doorstep and is the perfect blend of history and modernity. A city with over 2000 years of rich heritage around every corner, Colchester has an array of attractions, cultural sites and delectable options for dining, drinking and shopping.

The city boasts Roman ruins and medieval buildings including Colchester Castle, as well as family-friendly places such as Colchester Zoo, Mercury Theatre and Firstsite Art Gallery.

EXCELLENCE IN EDUCATION

Paddock View is near to a diverse range of education settings. For primary education, Fordham All Saints C of E Primary School offers a solid foundation with a focus on academic and moral development. The Stanway School serves as a reputable secondary school, providing comprehensive education and a supportive learning environment.

Families seeking private education options can choose from co-educational institutions such as Holmwood House, Oxford House, or Colchester High School or St Mary's School for Girls. All of which are a short drive from Fordham, with each school offering unique educational approaches and learning opportunities.

For those interested in grammar schools, Colchester County High School for Girls and Colchester Royal Grammar School for Boys are esteemed choices known for academic excellence.

PLACES TO DISCOVER

The Three Horseshoes pub is a quintessential country haven for residents seeking a vibrant community experience. An award-winning family-run pub and restaurant, it stands at the heart of the local community and provides an ideal gathering spot for friends and neighbours.

The Coffee Shed resides in a charming building next to the pub. A tranquil and welcome environment, there is comfortable seating with captivating views over the Woodland Trust fields. The Coffee Shed is a meeting place for locals to connect and enjoy good coffee and freshly made treats in a relaxed setting.

Just around the corner, discover Fordham Hall Estate, the largest woodland creation site in eastern England. Meandering along the River Colne, explore verdant woodlands and vibrant flower-rich meadows.

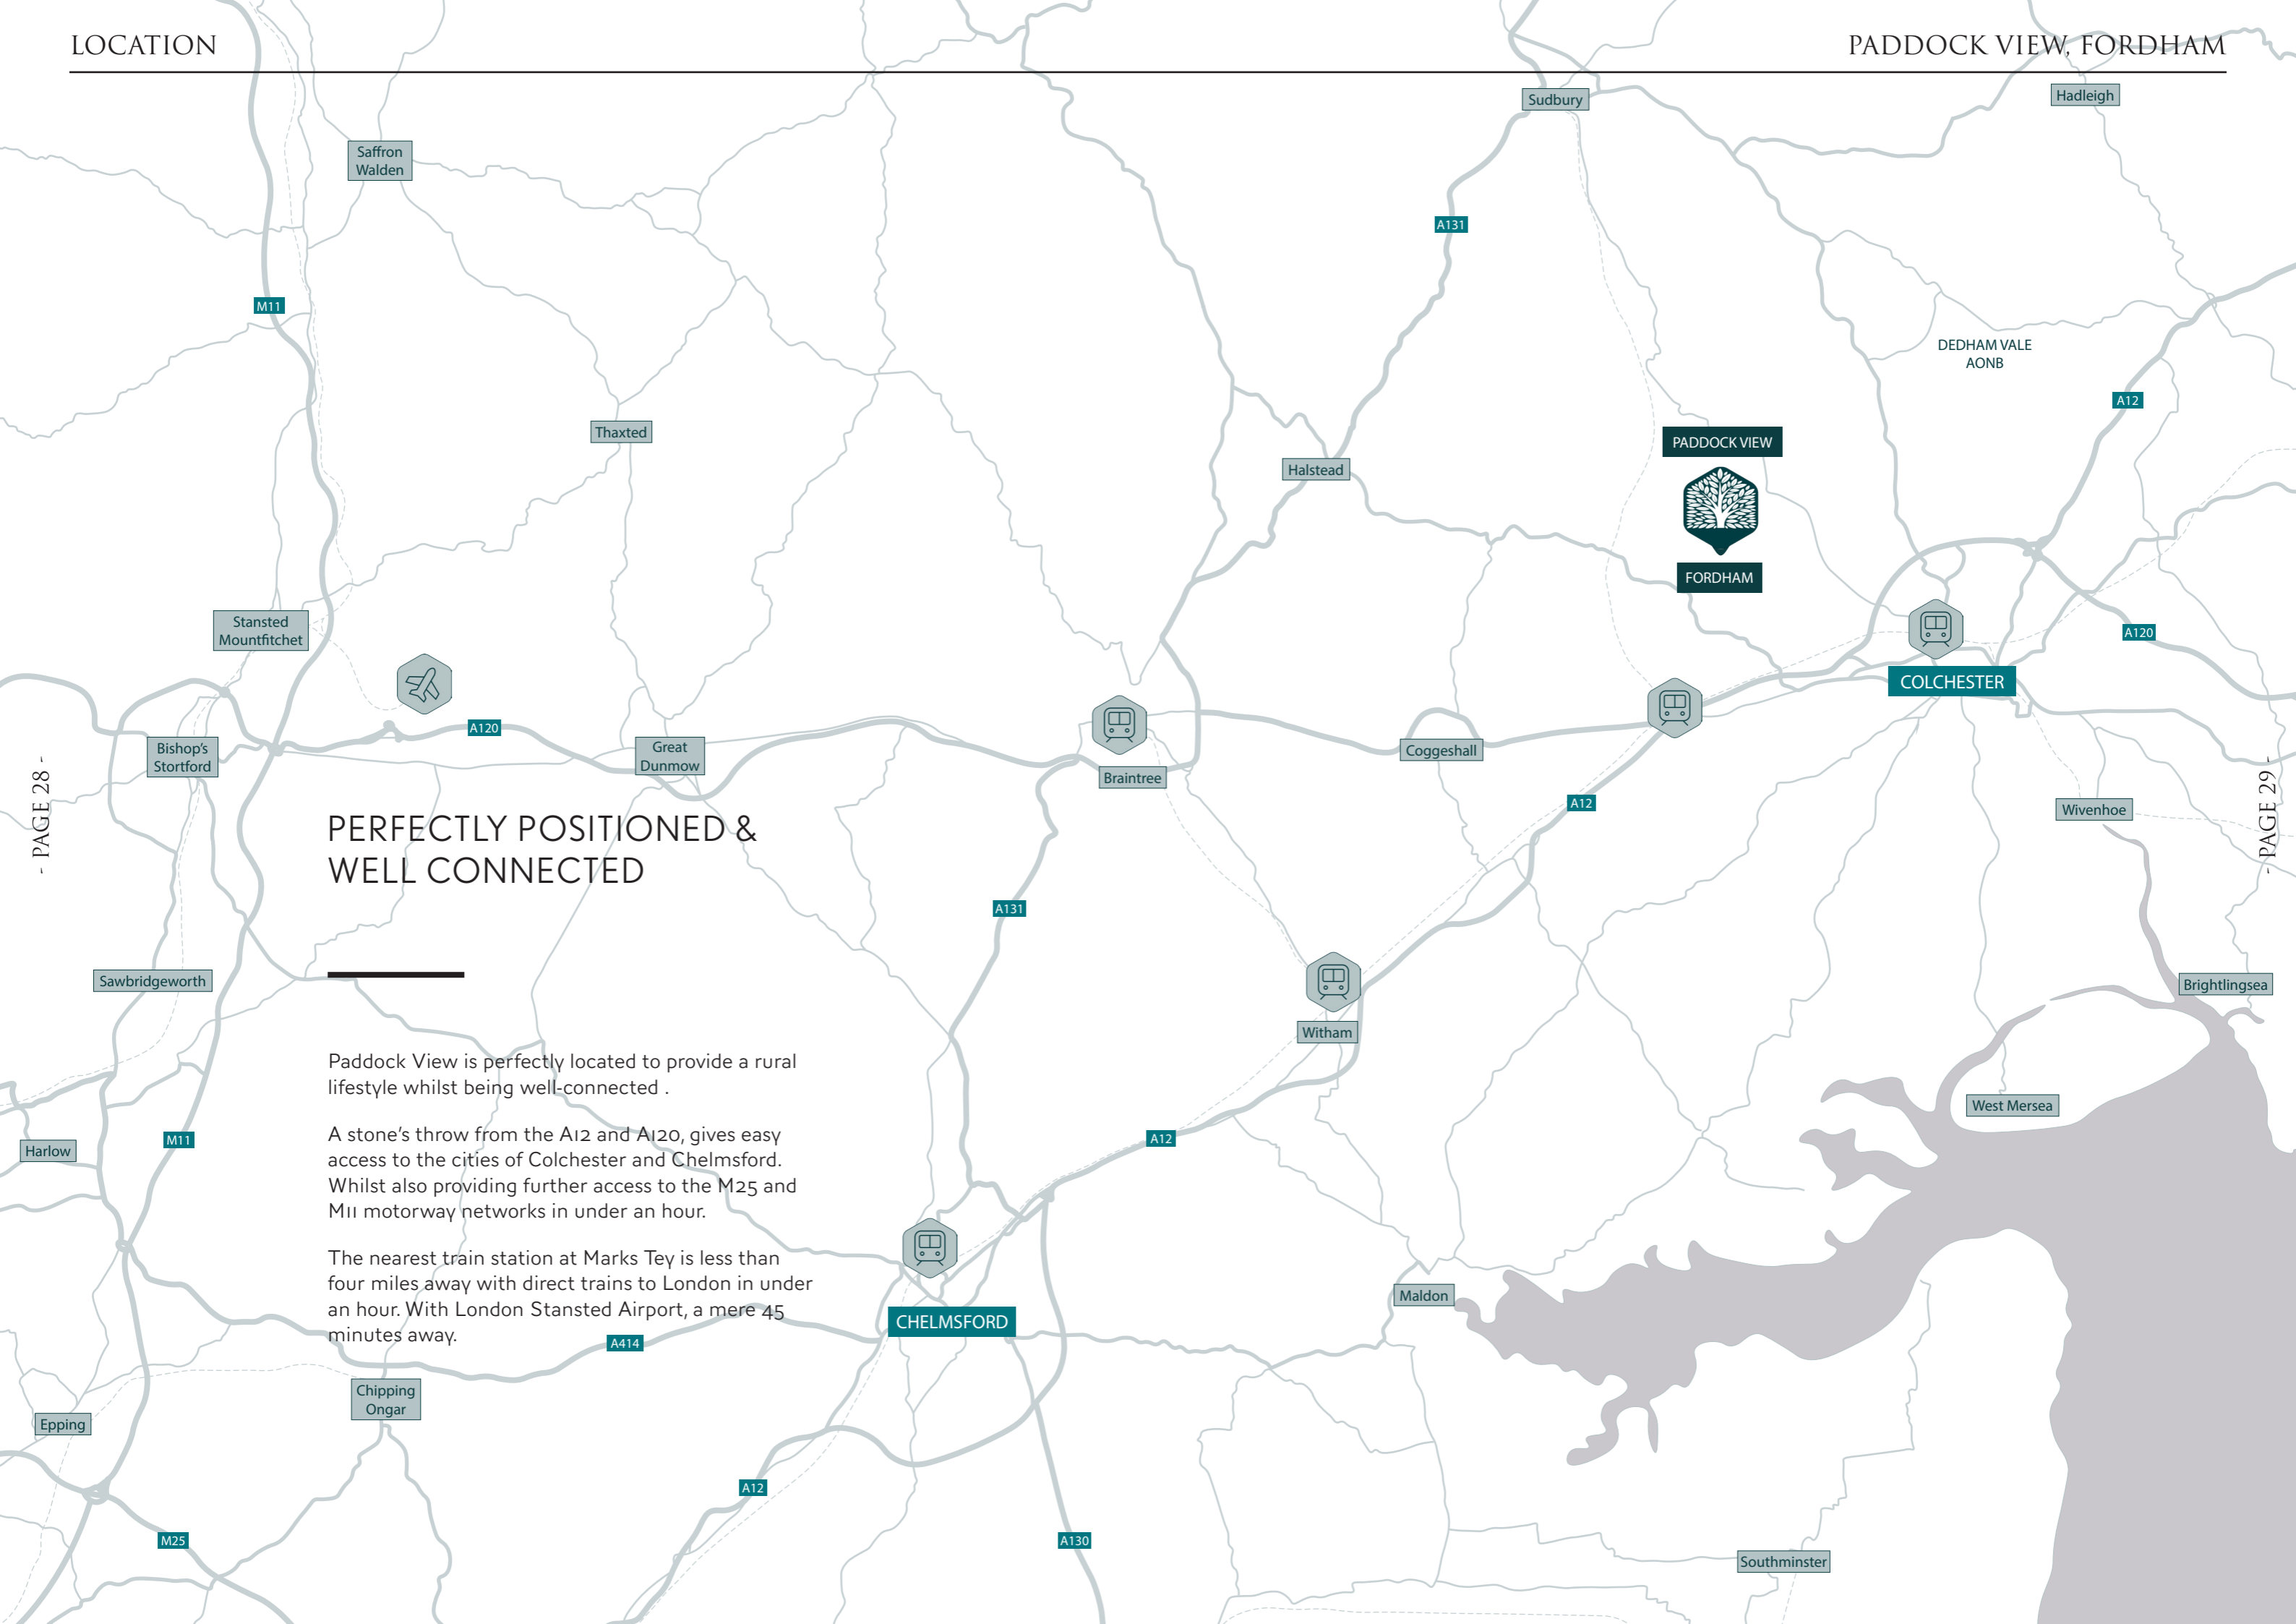

For equestrian enthusiasts, Fletchers Farm Riding School is a short walk from Paddock View and offers lessons for children and adults, as well as advanced training sessions, shows and clinics for competitive riders.
